

Please don't allow cell phone use on aircraft. It would cause so many problems including air rage and frustrated people that are over tired from traveling that just want to sleep. Just because it's the morning or daytime in the US many people come from other countries and connect and look forward to sleep. Do allow email and text messaging. This way people can keep in touch with those on the ground without disturbing others.